NOTE: COVID 19 Advisory: The COVID-19 epidemic has significantly affected the availability of electronic equipment and components. While distribution of products is improving, it is likely that there may be significant wait times. We will do our best to keep you informed of any product back orders or availability as we receive information from distributors.

Note On Wireless Systems: Due to the difficulties of obtaining wireless microphone systems, the Shure microphone systems included in the estimate may be replaced with another competing manufacturer.
